

HFRSOLUTIONS

training today for a safer tomorrow

Fire Awareness

F08

Fire

Course Overview

The Renewable UK Fire Awareness standard outlines the basic safety training and competence recommended by Renewable UK for personnel involved with work on wind turbines and any associated site or project infrastructure.

Course Syllabus

- General health and safety duties of employers to their employees
- Personal responsibilities of employees and the self-employed
- Overview of relevant legislation
- Overview of relevant standards & guidance
- Fire combustion and Fire spread
- Hazards and risks relating to fires within the Wind industry
- Fire prevention
- Fire Extinguishing
- Risk assessments and control measures for Fire Awareness
- Firefighting equipment used within the Wind industry
- Emergency procedures and Safety instructions
- Appreciate the relevance of different company/site specific H&S procedures and rules

Duration ½ Day

Max number of delegates 12

Awarding Body Renewable UK / GWO